Free, Year-Long Professional Development

Be a part of the James Madison Legacy Project for 2017-2018

Helping You Teach Civics and Government

Perfect for High School or Middle School teachers!

Through a grant from the U.S. Department of Education, the James Madison Legacy Project provides professional development for teaching the history, philosophies, changes, and application of the U.S. Constitution, Bill of Rights, Declaration of Independence, and other founding documents using the critically-acclaimed We the People: The Citizen and the Constitution curriculum.

The program will include lectures by nationally-recognized scholars and lesson demonstrations and discussions with experience classroom mentor teachers.

Participating teachers will receive:

- Classroom set of We the People textbooks (up to $680 value)
- 1 year teacher subscription to the We the People e-book
- $500 stipend
- 50+ hours of content and pedagogy professional development, including:
  - 5-day Summer Institute (July 9-13, 2017)
  - Follow up professional development in Fall 2017 and Spring 2018 (dates TBD)
- Substitute reimbursement
- Lodging, meals, travel stipends
- Graduate credit from Ashland University (optional; fee applies)

The whole experience was amazing – the energy, the speakers, the resources, the learning, and reflection opportunities are outstanding.
~ Gloria Wu, Toledo Public Schools, 2016-17 participant
