

Moot Court 2018

Errata Sheet – Posted 4/10/2018

Please note:

The errata sheet serves to clarify or correct errors in the Moot Court case and/or rules, and does not address team strategy, coaching, or judging protocol.

1.) Page 26, line 38 should read “now see if you fare better than...” (add an “e” onto “far”)

2.) Can students cite to the full language of the First and Fifth Amendments?

Yes, students are permitted to cite directly to these amendments in their entirety. The complete text is included below:

Amendment I

Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

Amendment V

No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offense to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.
