

THE ROAD TO MOCK TRIAL

A red location pin with the number 1 inside, next to a red rectangular box containing the text "Recruit Your Team(s)".

A blue location pin with the number 2 inside, next to a blue rectangular box containing the text "Optional: Attend the Conference".

A light blue location pin with the number 3 inside, next to a light blue rectangular box containing the text "Read the Showcase Book".

A green location pin with the number 4 inside, next to a green rectangular box containing the text "Purchase Case Materials".

A red location pin with the number 5 inside, next to a red rectangular box containing the text "Begin Your Practice Schedule".

A blue location pin with the number 6 inside, next to a blue rectangular box containing the text "Optional: Recruit a Team Legal Advisor".

A light blue location pin with the number 7 inside, next to a light blue rectangular box containing the text "Register Your Team(s)".

A green location pin with the number 8 inside, next to a green rectangular box containing the text "Submit Your Roster(s)".

A yellow location pin with the number 9 inside, next to a yellow rectangular box containing the text "Attend Your First Competition!".

Begin by recruiting your team(s) of 6-13 students. (See "Forming a Mock Trial Team" graphic)

(Optional) Attend the Mock Trial Conference in September.

Decide if your team will read the showcase book and, if so, begin reading.

Purchase your case materials on OCLRE's website. You will need 1 case per school.

Begin your practice schedule. Practices may begin before or after winter break, depending on your schedule.

(Optional) Reach out to attorneys in your area to serve as your legal advisor or contact your local bar association for assistance.

Register your team(s) for the Mock Trial Showcase. Dates are filled on a first come, first served basis.

Be sure to submit your roster(s) and complete the OCLRE Behavior Standards form one week before your showcase date.

Attend your first competition!

High School Competition → Late January
Middle School Invitational → May

